

Alpharetta has a new place for fine food with great music seven nights a week since Pisces Seafood opened at 4120 Old Milton Parkway. After a romantic dinner, the celebration begins when the tables are pushed back and Pisces transforms into a nightclub atmosphere. The dining room can accommodate 220 people, and the bar area seats 40. A private meeting room for corporate and social functions comes fully equipped with audio capability, a 10-inch drop-down screen and a wireless microphone for presentations.

Executive Chef Raymond Gaboury prepares market-fresh seafood favorites such as jumbo lump crab cakes, bourbon molasses grilled salmon, mussels diablo, and jerk grilled swordfish as well as filet mignon and other steaks.

A variety of noted jazz artists will play each month.

Pisces is open from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. for lunch Monday through Friday, dinner from 5 p.m. to 1 a.m. Monday through Wednesday, and from 5 p.m. to 2 a.m. Thursday through Saturday. Sunday brunch is served from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and dinner from 5 p.m. to 1 a.m.
