Come fall in love with jazz artist, Tammy Allen! A music veteran, Tammy toured the western US for 10 years prior to settling in the Atlanta area. She opened her own full service-recording studio, Big House Studios, where she engineers, teaches guitar, voice and songwriting. Her love of exploring new directions in music has led her to create The Future of Jazz Competition in partnership with Atlanta's Office of Cultural Affairs. Tammy is always a favorite at the Atlanta Jazz Festival, and she keeps a full calendar performing at The Georgia Aquarium, The Centennial park Wednesday Wind Down, and is a familiar face at Londzells, just to name a few!
